

Job Description

Position – Electrical Technician

Reporting to: Workshop Team Leader

Responsible for: Manufacture/ system build to correct sequence, drawings and specification, observing and adhering to all Health & Safety rules & procedures

Purpose / Role – As an Electrical Technician you are responsible for maintaining timely efficient working practices, applying appropriate tools and techniques to effect a quality build, maintaining clean and safe working environment with maximum effort making good use of allotted time.

Key Aims and Objectives –

- Follow correct build instructions & drawings
- Checking for mistakes, reporting any quality defects
- Maintain excellent relations with team and colleagues
- Remain flexible
- Contribute to Continuous Improvement whenever possible

Prime Role and Duties:

Have completed a recognised trade apprenticeship

- Responsible for the assembly of a range of Electrical Equipment
- Have the experience of operating in an engineering assembly environment safely and effectively
- Have the ability to work as a team and also utilise own initiative
- Possess a can do attitude and have a proactive approach
- Have the ability to correctly assemble work from a parts list and drawings
- Possess an understanding of the requirements for the correct assembly of all electrical assemblies and sub-assemblies, as well as experience stripping, crimping, and terminating all cables including umbilical's
- Be involved in and instigate Continuous improvement activities. Experience working in a continuous improvement environment
- Have a flexible approach to working time requirements
- Be able to follow directions given by Team Leader in a pro-active manner
- Have the enthusiasm and drive to succeed and progress through the company internal development systems
- Ability to recognise and work to meet pre-determined deadlines, production schedule

-
- Be safety conscious and experienced in task risk assessment
 - An understanding of 5S would be advantageous

Applicants should be able to demonstrate they have sufficient experience to carrying out the above tasks and in particular be organised, flexible and enjoy being part of a pro-active team.

Applicants should be able to demonstrate they have sufficient experience to carrying out the above tasks and in particular be organised, flexible and enjoy being part of a pro-active team.

Allied Occasional Duties

Any occupational tasks / objectives or assigned duties as directed by your line manager

Key Internal Interfaces

Maintain good working relations with all internal colleagues or visitors, promoting an open & honest relationship leaning towards a quality drive for excellence.

Core Competences

- Multi discipline / Fitter, Technician. HNC or equivalent experience.
 - Health & Safety Driven
 - Can operate in a Lean environment.
 - Willing to learn & be flexible
- 